

Odysseus: “A Born Leader”

We will be starting to write a paper on what a true leader is. We will be taking specific traits that a true leader has and explaining how Odysseus fits those traits. This paper will require you to pick THREE specific traits and explain and prove, through using examples in the book, how Odysseus fits the role of a “true” and “born” leader.

To begin this assignment we will brainstorm and discuss qualities that make a true leader. Then we will begin brainstorming how Odysseus fits these qualities.

Write three qualities that come to mind when you think of Odysseus. Think of qualities that make someone a good leader.

3.

Now, go back up to your three listed traits and think of a time in the story where Odysseus showed and displayed this trait. Write down a brief sentence or two that summarizes that event in the story and how Odysseus displayed that trait during that event.
